

Try to find Christian church and regularly visit it. Communicate with believers – they are your brothers and sisters. They will help you to solve your needs, will pray for you. The church is a family where everyone hangs together and helps to increase and become stronger each other in belief.