It was the title of the performance which has taken place on January 7.

It was prepared by participants of children's ministry.

Children from needy families with their parents have been invited to a performance.

