

On April 13 we have had unusual meeting.

Grandmothers with their grandchildren were invited to it.

They had tea with pancakes and pies.

Interesting games and competitions both for grandmothers and for grandsons were organized.

We are grateful to God for perfectly spent time.

It is very pleasant to visit our grannies and communicate with them.