

This visit was not a first for missionaries from America.

All of them are united by God's love. They give the heart, time, forces, finances disinterestedly on such services.

The purpose of their arrival on October 7 was carrying out a training on the subject "Five Languages of Love".

After training we had a test.

We hope this is not their last arrival and the Lord will give us a lot of similar meetings.