

On April 11, we attended a service in the Krasny May Baptist church.

Brother Valery Fokin began the service.

Together with our brothers and sisters, we glorified the Lord.

Some of the people who took part in a Bible study, which takes place every Sunday after the end of the church

