Regional television report

In the social rehabilitation center "House of hope", alcohol and drug addicts learn to live anew.

We decided to see firsthand how the transformation of these people is going, how they fight with their inner monsters.